

The local K-LOVE radio station is a great service to me. The station is inspirational and very encouraging to my life. Right now, it is being threatened by the FCC's new broadcast service LPFM (Low Power FM). This would be tragic to see K-LOVE go. Please fight to keep K-LOVE from being replaced for the interest of the public.